Non-binding translation of approval of Glucose oxidase

The Danish Veterinary and Food Administration has processed your application of 15 December 2016 on approval of the enzyme product Glucose oxidase for use in baking, other cerealbased processes and eggprocessing.

The enzyme product is produced by the use of a genetically modified microorganism Trichoderma Reesei (RF11400/RH33311).

The application has been processed in accordance with §8 of the Danish regulation on additives¹.

Approval

The enzyme product Glucose oxidase is approved for use in:

- Baking processes with a recommended maximum dose of 10 mg TOS/kg raw material
- Other cereal processes with a recommended maximum dose of 10 mg TOS/kg raw material
- Egg processing with a recommended maximum dose of 10 mg TOS/kg raw material

The approval is primarily based on information provided by you, including information about the manufacturing process.

Conditions of the approval

The Danish Veterinary and Food Administration has considered it necessary to attach certain conditions to this approval. The enzyme product must comply with the laws in force, including the requirements in annex 2 to the Danish regulation on additives and the Commission Regulations no. 1333/2008 on Food additives², and no. 1332/2008 on Food enzymes³.

The company is the producer of the product in question. In the case of resale of the product to Danish wholesalers or food producers, the company is therefore obliged to inform about the conditions in this approval, including restrictions on use. If the user wishes to use the product at different conditions than described in this approval, it has to be reported to the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration.

² Commission Regulation (EU) No 1333/2008 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 16 September 2008 on food additives

³ REGULATION (EC) No 1332/2008 OF THE EUROPEAN PARLIAMENT AND OF THE COUNCIL of 16 December 2008 on food enzymes and amending Council Directive 83/417/EEC, Council Regulation (EC) No 1493/1999, Directive 2000/13/EC, Council Directive 2001/112/EC and Regulation (EC) No 258/97

The company commits itself to follow and comply with changes in regulatory requirements after the approval has been issued. Should the production of the enzyme change or cease, the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration must be informed accordingly.

Finally the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration points out that the continued use of the enzyme product may require submission of new data and reserves the right to obtain information about the product at any time. The approval can be withdrawn if the conditions have changed in such a way, that the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration find a withdrawal necessary.

Labelling

The Danish Veterinary and Food Administration informs that the product must be labelled according to the laws in force on labelling, including the enzyme regulation and the labelling regulation⁴.

Complaints procedure

The company may complain about the approval to the Environment and Food Appeals Board within 4 weeks from the receipt of this letter. If the company chooses to complain, the complaint must be submitted to the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration. This can be done orally and in writing. If the company wishes to complain in writing, this may be done by letter to the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration, Stationsparken 31-33, 2600 Glostrup or digitally using the contact formula on the website of the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration (fvst.dk/kontakt). Please state the file number.

The complaint must be received by the Danish Veterinary and Food Administration before the deadline.

Complaints received after the deadline will usually not be dealt with.

Yours sincerely

Mette Christiansen
